Next Steps

- After reviewing the different memorial location options, the subcommittee recommended the garden bed behind Trolley Stop Plaza as the best site for the memorial.
 - Kevin Gray volunteered to present the location to the full committee.
 - DDP to share slides with Kevin Gray this week and include the additional images shared after the meeting.
 - In addition to the memorial at the Trolley Stop Plaza garden bed, the subcommittee recommended an additional recognition be considered in the street.
- The City of Dayton has agreed to own the memorial and maintain it if that is what the committee wants.
- Subcommittee to provide site recommendations including dimensions etc. of the space to be included in the call for artists.
- Brian Zamostny to look into what is underneath the site and what resources (lighting etc.) are available.
- Sandy Gudorf to re-confirm with the City Manager and Robin that the site can be used.
